

Patricia Zoan Schuh-Trifforiot was called home to Heaven on August 21st. No one can fill her shoes. She will be greatly missed by her two sons; Christian Trifforiot, Remy Trifforiot (Katie), two brothers; Bill Schuh (Ernestine), Jim Schuh (Teresa); sister, Elizabeth Schuh-Pina (Larry); many nephews and nieces, those who adopted her as their mother and called her “mom” and so many friends.

We all called her Florence Nightingale because if anyone was sick, in the hospital, hungry, homeless, lonely, hurting or had any need whatsoever, she was there. When she was in the hospital, she told us that this was so hard for her. She said that she should be helping others, not others helping her.

Patricia is preceded in death by her father Ed Schuh, mother Zoan Schuh, and brother Christopher Schuh.

The family would like to thank Dr. Doug Wilson and Dr. Ari Umutyan for their most excellent loving care. We would also like to thank the loving caregivers from Hired Hands Homecare and from Collabria Hospice.

Friends and family are invited to a Memorial Mass and celebration of life at St. Thomas Aquinas church located at 2725 Elm St. in Napa, September 20th at 5:30. Please bring your favorite casserole or salad to share at a potluck immediately following the service. Drinks and desserts will be provided.

Donations in Patricia’s memory may be made to Collabria Hospice of Napa, 414 S. Jefferson St. Napa 94558 and Alpha Pregnancy Clinic of Napa 3449 Valle Verde Dr. Napa, 94558
